

Family Journal for the Week of October 3, 2007

*I find television very educational. The minute somebody turns it on,
I go to the library and read a good book. – Groucho Marx*

Important Dates:

October 8 and 9

Remember that this coming weekend is a long weekend and that 9th graders, in addition to Monday, have Tuesday off so that teachers may work to plan. If you are behind in your work, this is a great opportunity to do some catching up on Tuesday. Parents – please check in with your son or daughter to see if they could use this time to catch up on work and, if so, please help them to find the space to do this work.

October 17, 18 and 19

Advisor/Student/Parent conferences will take place in the afternoons of the 17th, 18th and 19th. Students will be dismissed at noon on these dates. Your child's advisor will be contacting you to set up a meeting time.

October 5

The Innisbrook fundraiser, which went home a few weeks ago, is due on Friday, October 5. Orders will be in before Thanksgiving.

Donation needs:

The Art Department is still in need of donations of materials. The students are doing some amazing work. Any help you can give with these needs would be greatly appreciated. The following materials are needed:

LOTS OF CHICKEN WIRE! (this is the most important!!) (We are building a 7ft tall barbie & other sculptures....)

Hammers and nails

D-rings

Drill

POWER TOOLS! Circular saw, jigsaw, Dremel tool, drills, etc....

Primer

Acrylic Paint and paint brushes

Wire

Aprons

Hinges

PLYWOOD -- various sizes, big sheets of 4' by 8' would be AWESOME in multiple widths

Paint thinner

Paint mixing sticks

Hooks

Wire cutters

The family journal is released every Wednesday afternoon and includes important information and occasional thoughts from teachers and school leadership. The family journal is also posted online at www.innovationcharter.org.
